Introduction: Aorist Ptc.

- Present Participles = continuous action
- Aorist Participles = complete/wholistic action
- Aorist means it just states that the action took place
3 Usages of the Participle

- Adjective: modifies a noun "The woman who sat on the right"
  - Note the use of a past tense verb rather than an –ing verb “the boy who came was the first choice”
- Adverb: "After running up the hill, she sat"
- Substantive: "The one who sat there was"
Participles and time

- Aorist participles time is relative to the main verb. The action of the aorist participle takes place prior/before the action of the main verb. "After speaking, he went his way."

- Aorist may also describe attendant circumstances.
Participle Voice

- Active: word the participle modifies does the action -- The man who ran to the store was the first to come.

- Middle: self-interest -- After freeing himself, he ran to the store.

- Passive: Receives the action of the participle -- The boy who was stung by the bees ran.
